OUR FIRM

SKILEO COMMUNICATIONS

YOUR MISSION

WEBSITE DESIGN &
DEVELOPMENT FOR CLIENTS

WHO WE ARE

Skileo develops web and mobile projects for big-name clients in the Boston area. We are a small family-like team thriving with an effective culture of collaboration. The offices are cosy and hours are flexible. You'll be working in a casual but professional environment that stimulates productivity; there will be lots of work to get done!

WHO WE WANT

Interning at Skileo means putting the team first. Being an effective and open-minded communicator during our daily stand-up meetings is key. You should also be friendly and approachable, with a willingness to learn from your coworkers. In your portfolio, we'll be looking for attention to detail. Knowledge of web technologies is important, but the most important thing is that you are hungry to learn and produce high-quality work.
